

Dream is over

Now the dream is over

This is where I am

Sitting on this wheel chair

Reflecting on myself

Yes, the dream is over

No longer the man

That I used to be

Will come back again

Craving for the time

I could do it all

I just had no limits

Depending on my own

Now the dream is over

This is what I am

A man who dreams of flying

A man who wants the end

Yet my mind is fighting

My body wants to escape

But there is no answer

My brain is my own cell

I'm fully dependant

on someone else's help

I just can do nothing
Not even breathing by myself

The dream is over (2)
My soul is bleeding
My life is over

The dream is over (3)
The dream is fucking over!!!

Now the dream is over
This is where I am
Sitting on this wheel chair
Reflecting on myself

Yes, the dream is over
No longer the man
That I used to be
Will come back again
